UPDATE

Broadstone's children let down by Tories

Conservative councillors voted to scrap the playbuilder improvements planned for Broadstone Recreation ground play area.

Cllrs Mike Brooke and Roy Godfrey at the Broadstone Rec play area that has been axed from the scheme

"We are very disappointed" said Cllr Roy Godfrey. "Over 400 children, parents and residents had been consulted and plans drawn up. Everyone involved must feel very let down and money must have been wasted."

U-turn over budget cuts

Lib Dem proposals to boost funding for Poole's voluntary sector are to be implemented in part by the Council despite being rejected by the Tories in March.

"We welcome this U-turn," said Vikki Slade. "At last our comments are being listened to, though the additional money is considerably less than we had proposed. Citizens Advice Bureau will receive an extra £15,000. We also welcome the development of some of our suggestions for savings, such as teleconferencing."

The Dell

Following our campaign to restore The Dell to its former glory we have received confirmation of developer funding.

The scheme is scheduled in two phases and it is hoped work will start in September. We would like to thank all those who volunteered to help.

Working all year round for... Young People

Broadstone Skate Jam+ April 15th

Coordinated by Councillors Mike Brooke and Roy Godfrey and supported by Vikki Slade, this event was attended by over 300 young people aged 5-18 and is an excellent example of community organisations working together.

Elderly and Vulnerable People

We are campaigning against Conservative cuts to our care services and excessive increases (up to 600%) in charges

Road Safety Improvements

Councillor Mike Brooke worked to get this refuge in the Broadway

Councillor Roy Godfrey worked with local residents to improve road gritting
